Laws We Live By

Law of Mechanical Repair:

After your hands become coated with grease your nose will begin to itch.

Law of the Workshop:

Any tool, when dropped, will roll to the least accessible corner.

Law of probability:

The probability of being watched is directly proportional to the stupidity of the act.

Law of the Telephone:

When you dial a wrong number, you never get a busy signal.

Law of the Alibi:

If you tell the boss a flat tire made you late for work, the very next morning you will have a flat tire.

Variation Law: If you change lines (or traffic lanes), the one you were in will start to move faster than the one you are in now. (works every time)

Law of Close Encounters:

The probability of meeting someone you know increases when you are with someone you don't want to be seen with.

Law of the Result:

When you try to prove to someone that a machine won't work, it will.

Law of Coffee:

As soon as you sit down to a cup of hot coffee, your boss will ask you to do something that lasts until the coffee is cold.

Murphy's Law of Lockers:

If there are only two people in a locker room, they will have adjacent lockers.

Law of Location:

Wherever you go, there you are!

Law of Logical Argument:

Anything is possible if you don't know what you're talking about.

Brown's Law:

If the shoe fits, it's ugly.

Oliver's Law:

A closed mouth gathers no feet.

Wilson's Law: As soon as you find a product you really like, they will stop making it. Thanks to Leila Whiting for the above "Laws" from the Anoka Rotary Bulletin.
